AMSTERDAM(NETHERLANDS) - The land of wooden shoes and dikes and windmills and tulips and canals and Hans Christian Anderson. Great to explore.

DOVER(UNITED KINGDOM) - All of us are familiar with the cliffs of Dover. We can also spend a day in London and the possibilities are endless.

ROSTOCK(BERLIN/GERMANY) - Take the train through the peaceful Mecklenburg countryside, then its world history 101 as you visit the Brandenburg Gate and Checkpoint Charlie, and see remnants of the Berlin Wall.

STOCKHOLM(SWEDEN) - One of Europe's most beautiful capitals. Here you visit the grand Vasa Ship Museum with the world's oldest preserved war vessel.

HELSINKI (FINLAND) - See Porvoo and Helsinki Highlights as you walk the cobblestone streets of this old wooden town with a majestic medieval cathedral.

ST. PETERSBURG (RUSSIA) - See the world's most beautiful Castle, built by Catherine the Great. Peter the Great did a great job when he started out to build the most beautiful city in the world.

COPENHAGEN(DENMARK) - Words like enchanting are especially apt in the country that brought us "the little mermaid" and Tivoli Gardens..
