

GUADALAJARA FIESTA

City of Flowers and Fountains

6 DAYS (6 Meals & Tequila Express Train) $499 PER PERSON***

A favorite of travelers and retirees who fall in love with Guadalajara, the pearl of Jalisco. Even though it is Mexico's second largest city, it still maintains a provincial atmosphere. Guadalajara is known for the Mexican cowboy costume, the joyful mariachi music, handicrafts, tequila and delicious cuisine. When you visit Lake Chapala and picturesque Ajijic, you'll see why the area is so popular. We added the Tequila Express Train with a full day excursion to Tequila where you learn about this important industry, enjoy good food and drink, and lots of authentic Mexican music.

DAY 1 - Cross the border into Mexico at Reynosa continuing to San Luis Potosi, the cross roads of Mexico. Overnight at the Hotel Panorama in San Luis Potosi.

DAY 2 - Leave for Guadalajara, with a year round spring like climate. Arrive in time for a downtown walking tour visiting the State Capital, the massive cathedral and the Plaza Tapatio. Overnight at the downtown Hotel Fenix in Guadalajara.

DAY 3 - The high lite for today is the train ride and the included all day tour on the Tequila Express to the Hacienda San Jose del Refugio. Mariachis, folkloric dancing and lunch are all included at this beautiful old ex-hacienda still producing tequila of the finest quality. Overnight at the Hotel Fenix in Guadalajara. BB, L

DAY 4 - Drive through the countryside pausing at Lake Chapala and on to picturesque Ajijic- beautifully situated on the shores of the lake. Many Americans and Canadians retire here midst flowers that bloom year round. Enjoy a leisurely lunch at a restaurant on the edge of the lake. Return to the city via Tlaquepaque where mariachis serenade at the Parian - the main square where groups of musicians wait to entertain you. Overnight at the Hotel Fenix in Guadalajara. BB

DAY 5 - Leave romantic Guadalajara behind as we depart for Zacatecas traveling through Aguascalientes where you have time to shop the many stores in the downtown area for hand embroidered articles. Continue to Zacatecas arriving in time to visit La Bufa with a grand overlook of the city. Explore the cobblestone streets of the downtown area. Overnight at the Hotel Emporio in Zacatecas. BB

DAY 6 - Homeward bound through Concepcion de Oro and Saltillo where you can buy Pan de Pulque. Continue through Monterrey crossing the border at Reynosa with so many fun filled memories of colonial Guadalajara that you too may want to retire in the Guadalajara/Lake Chapala area! BB
