HILL COUNTRY & MARKET DAYS

3 DAYS (3 Meals)

$359 PER PERSON

Willkommen! The beautiful Texas Hill Country where most of the towns were founded by German settlers in the mid 1800's. A great destination! Our tour is planned around Fredericksburg Trade Days with hopes that we may see some wild flowers just beginning to peek through. This is going to be a fun trip!

DAY 1 - What a beautiful time of the year! The promise of Spring and new life fill the air! Meander up Highway 281 through San Antonio and on into Fredericksburg. It's a little early for Spring Flowers but let's see how many we can spot. After check in have an early dinner before your included tickets to the RockBox Theater... an entertaining two hours of musical talent. Overnight at the Sunday House in Fredericksburg.

DAY 2 -Put on your walking shoes for a trip to the Fredericksburg Trade Days - 6 barns, 350 vendors displaying acres of antiques, collectibles, tools, crafts, shabby chic, primitives, ranch furniture, hunting accessories, jewelry, food and more and more. "If you can't find it at Trade Days, you don't need it" Tired of walking and looking? Take a break at the Biergarten as you listen to polka music and sip on any one of the 50 varieties of beers. You will want to grab a sausage or two before continuing to shop. Later, Stop by Wildseed Farms to view acres and acres of wildflowers. Later today, drop by Lukembach and do a little two stepping on our own. Overnight at the Sunday House in Fredericksburg. B

DAY 3 - Time to start home taking the back roads to enjoy a little more of the Texas Hill Country. Arrive into Gruene in time to shop awhile and perhaps sample some wine before enjoying an included country style lunch at the Grist Mill Restaurant. Unfortunately it's now time to continue home. What a trip! B, L
