The Copper Canyon is four times larger than our own Grand Canyon. Ride the "World's Most Scenic Railroad". Enjoy spectacular views. Be sure to buy some of that delicious Chihuahua cheese. Note that Jo is including a ride on the newest attraction - a teleferico that takes you from canyon rim to canyon rim.

Continue by bus to Creel, traveling through the Mennonite country to reach our home for the next two nights at the Lodge in Creel. B, D

DAY 4 - Enjoy breakfast with some free time for visiting this John Wayne type of town before we take a spectacular train ride to Divisadero on the Chihuahua al Pacifico, affectionately called El Chepe by the locals. Watch for El Lazo where the train makes a 360 degree turn around itself as it wends its way through the mountains. Arrive at Divisadero, the mid point (divide) where you will enjoy a light lunch before we begin our exploration. Take a leisurely walk along the canyon rim. Local Indian dancers perform typical dances accompanied by a musician playing on a home made violin. There will be free time for a ride on the Teleferico - opened in late 2010- a short ride that takes you from rim to rim with magnificent views of the canyon. Return by bus to the Lodge at Creel. B, PL, D
